

Course: 6413 First Look: Getting Started with Web and Application Platform Technologies in Windows Server® 2008 (Beta 3) Hands-On Lab

Description: This 90-minute lab provides hands-on experience with the overall functionality of Internet Information Services 7.0 in Windows Server 2008.

Price: $0.00

Category: Windows Server Systems

Duration: 2 hours

Schedule:

Request Dates

Outline:

Hands-On Lab Outline

Exercise 1: Managing Web Sites in IIS 7

After completing this exercise, students will be able to:

- Stop a Website using Appcmd
- Explore the Configuration of an Existing Website
- Create a Virtual Directory
- Start a Website using Appcmd
- Display Website Information with Content View
- Create a new Application pool using the Command-line
- Change an Application Pool assigned to a Website
- Start and Stop Application Pools
- Recycle Application Pools

- View Applications in an Application Pool
- View Information about Worker Processes and Application Pool Settings

Exercise 2: Shared Web Server Configuration

After completing this exercise, students will be able to:

- Back up the current ApplicationHost.config
- Verify backup of ApplicationHost.config File
- Restore ApplicationHost.config file
- Create a user account for accessing the UNC share
- Create the UNC shares for central configuration and content
- Give permissions to the configuser Account for the UNC shares that will host the central configuration file and content
- Create Logon Batch Configuration for User Accounts
- Enable Shared Configuration
- Test the Shared Configuration File

Exercise 3: Managing an IIS 7.0 Web Server

After completing this exercise, students will be able to:

- Configure Management Service Page
- Configure Feature Delegation
- Enable IIS Users and Create a User
- Delegate Control of the Woodgrove Bank Intranet Website

